Cadiz, March 23.

A Squadron of nine Men of War ſailed from hence Yeſterday; and to Morrow a Fleet of Tranſport Ships with Troops and Ammunition is likewiſe to put to Sea under Convoy of ſeveral Men of War for Barcelona; which Place is alſo appointed for the Rendezvous of the Ships that are to be likewiſe ſent from Malaga, Alicant and Cartagena, with Supplies of Men and warlike Stores for our Army in Sardinia. By a Tartane which came in here Yeſterday from Ceuta we have an Account, that the Governour has received a ſecond Meſſage from the General of the Mooriſh Army before that Place, with freſh Aſſurances of the Diſpoſition of the Emperour of Morocco, his Maſter, to conclude a Peace with his Catholick Majeſty.

Madrid, April 4. The 31ſt paſt the Queen of Spain was happily delivered of a Daughter, who has ſince been chriſtened Mary-Ann-Victoria; Te Deum was ſung in the Church of our Lady of Atocha, the King with the great Officers of State and the chief of the Nobility being preſent, and there have been great Rejoycings upon this Occaſion. The Marquis de Nancré has had a private Audience of the King, and is very frequently in Conference with Cardinal Alberoni, and with Collonel Stanhope the Britiſh Envoy, upon Propoſals tranſmitted hither from the King of Great Britain and the Regent of France, for an Accommodation of the Differences between this Court and that of Vienna. The Council of the Hazienda or Treaſury is ordered to diſpatch the Buſineſs before them, but not to proceed upon any freſh Matter without the King's particular Direction; ſome new Regulations being intended for the better Adminiſtration of the Finances, which will be perfected upon the Return of the Intendant Patin from Cadiz, whoſe Advice is much depended on in thoſe Matters. Lieutenant General Don Franciſco Caetano de Arragon is appointed in the Room of Don Blas de Oya, to command the Detachment of Guards which is ſhortly to march from hence towards Catalonia. Letters from Barcelona ſay, the Convoy that lately ſailed from thence and from Alicant for Sardinia was put back by a violent Storm, in which were loſt about 300 Horſes, and a Tranſport Ship laden with Baggage was caſt away.

Venice, April 8. The Senate having found it neceſſary, for remedying the ill State of our Coin, to leſſen the Value of the Species of Gold, has iſſued an Order that the Chequins ſhall be current at no more than 22 Livres and five Sols, and other Gold Coins in Proportion. Four new raiſed Battallions of Foot are now at the Lido ready to embark with a great Number of Horſes to remount our Cavalry, and Tranſport Ships are preparing to carry them to Corfu. Our Advices from thence ſay, that General Schulemberg was gone to Voniza to put that Place into the beſt Poſture of Defence, and had ordered a Reinforcement of 500 Men to be ſent thither.

Copenhagen, April 6. Rear Admiral Schindel intends to ſail with the firſt fair Wind to the Bay of Kiog with four Men of War, and will in very few Days be joined by the Remainder of our Fleet, which is fitting out to Sea with all poſſible Expedition. A Daniſh Frigate has lately brought in here two Swediſh Prizes, one of which had on Board a great Quantity
